A Message From the Your President!

It's nearly time for the fall INA show in Cedar Rapids and it promises to be a good one. There will be an ANA display, educational seminars, a coin auction, and a great assemblage of coin dealers with some nice numismatic material for each of us to try to buy in order to upgrade or complete a special collection. There will be an ANA grading seminar for two days, October 11 and 12 just before the show; as of this date there is still the possibility of attending. If you are interested please contact Brian Fanton in Hiawatha, IA (phone: 319/393-1192).

It's been a good summer. I've attended a number of coin club meetings, some for the first time (Des Moines and Burlington). I always enjoy myself at meetings and meet a lot of new folks. Club meetings are the basis for our organization and your participation is essential to the growth and improvement of these organizations and our hobby. I believe there are three essential elements to the success of a coin club: (1) take coins, currency, exonumia or other numismatic items to discuss; (2) have an educational presentation at the meeting. It doesn't have to be lengthy or meet an academic standard but we all have knowledge, items and experiences to share; and (3) have club sponsored auctions on a regular basis (monthly, quarterly, annually or whatever). Again, I would remind club officers that the INA officers and directors should be available for an educational presentation. I've attended several coin auctions this summer and have been lucky enough to always find something that will improve a collection for me. Whenever possible at an auction I ask for permission to promote coin clubs and shows in the area and usually meet several new people at every auction. For those of you who don't know me yet, please introduce yourself; I know we can find something about coins to discuss.

This fall I'm going to try something new. I was contacted by the local area community college to teach a non credit education course on numismatics. I know this has been done in Cedar Rapids and perhaps elsewhere in the state; if not, and you have the time and resources, call your community colleges and ask them to have such a program in which you can participate. I have probably found just one more way to make a fool of myself but I can have fun doing it!

Hope to see you all in Cedar Rapids.

Sincerely,
Thomas D. Robertson

From the Secretary's Desk

Did everyone have a great summer of coin collecting? Or maybe you were busy with other activities. Sam and I were very busy with moving our shop to a different building. We have purchased an old jewelry store and we're very excited about our new location with lots of room for us to try and organize our coins, stamps, and supplies. First there was a little bit of remodeling to do. Then it was a coat of paint or two for the whole place inside and out, add some new carpet and it should be ready for business. Well pretty much, now came the organizing. Wow, what a task! I had forgotten about a few things until I found them again while either packing or unpacking. Now I remember why I really dread the task of moving! And of course, all of this took precious time. But now with September here we're open and ready for business once again.

The State Quarter program keeps rolling along with the Vermont quarters now showing up in change. As this program gets further along, I think it's kind of fun to see what states show up as we receive our change. I'm hoping Iowa's design is something to make us proud.

Talking about Mint programs, did everyone get their Buffalo Dollar Commems? There has to be lots of disappointed people out there or we wouldn't continue to receive so many phone calls. What do you think, should the Mint make some more to satisfy demand as they have published? We should all let the Mint know how we feel about this.

Well the yearly INA Convention will be here before we know it. Cedar Rapids Coin Club has been working hard on all the preparations and have some wonderful things in store for all attendees. Stop by and see me at the show, we can get next year's dues out of the way and double-check the records to make sure I have the proper address and even add an E-Mail address for possible future use. See you in Cedar Rapids.

Cedar Rapids

City of Five Seasons

This is for all the people who will come to the INA Convention & Show, in Cedar Rapids on October 13-14, 2001 that are not avid coin collectors. The FIFTH season for Cedar Rapids is "a time to enjoy life" and there are many things to see and enjoy in the area. The following are some ideas for the non-collector to do while "the collector" is at the show, or for all to do the day or two before or after the show.

Only about 15 minutes from the show site is BRUCEMORE, a Queen Anne-style mansion on a 26 acre estate with gardens. In the downtown area are three wonderful museums. The Cedar Rapids Museum of Art is always worth a visit. The National Czech & Slovak Museum & Library is part of Czech Village along the Cedar River on the South West edge of downtown. The History Center is on the northeast edge of downtown and is in a new facility. In addition, only a few blocks from downtown (near the History Center) is the Iowa Masonic Library & Museum with the most complete Masonic library in the world. This building is not open on weekends.

Other close-by points of interest are: Duffy's Collectible Cars, Granger House in Marion, Indian Creek Nature Center, Science Station, Seminole Valley Farm & Ushers Ferry Historic Village.

Two nice shopping malls are also close to the Sheraton Hotel. They are Westdale & Lindale. Coral Ridge Mall is about 20 miles south along interstate 80 at Coralville. If you have time, visit The Old Capitol in Iowa City before you go shopping and have tired feet.

Take an extra day and visit the Hoover Library in West Branch or stop at the Amanas to eat, shop and maybe catch an Old Creamery Theater production. The theater is great and there are no bad seats. The production for October is "LOVE, SEX AND THE IRS." Sounds like something for everyone!

If time allows plan to spend a day in and around Kalona where the Old Order Amish share the road with the most modern autos. It is just 45 miles south of Cedar Rapids. Less than an hour in your car but 4 hours by buggy!

In addition to all of the above there are many trails, parks, golf courses, camp sites, fishing spots and the Tanger Outlet Mall on 180, exit 229 near Williamsburg.

Come and enjoy the INA Convention & Show as well as Cedar Rapids and the area near by

More info is available by calling VISITOR INFORMATION at 800-735-5557 or on the web at www.cedar-rapids.com
